

INFORMED CONSENT FORM FOR ASSESSMENT RESEARCH BEING CONDUCTED
UNDER THE AUSPICES OF ROSE STATE COLLEGE
Educational Demographics – Fall 2014

DESCRIPTION OF THE STUDY: The study is designed to assess the characteristics of students who attend Rose State College. The person directing this project is Jeff Caldwell (736-0243). This document defines the terms and conditions for consenting to participate in this study.

RISKS AND BENEFITS: Identities of participants in the study will be kept anonymous. There are no obvious risks associated with non-participation in the study. Students will potentially receive many benefits from completing the survey as their beliefs can impact the future of the College and its programs.

CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION: Participation is voluntary. Refusal to participate will involve no penalty or loss of benefits to which the subject is otherwise entitled. Furthermore, the participant may discontinue participation at any time without penalty or loss of benefits to which the participant is otherwise entitled.

CONFIDENTIALITY: Findings will be presented in aggregate form with no identifying information. By completing this instrument, the student affirms that s/he has read the terms and conditions of the study and agrees to participate in it.

Subject: Ed Demographics -- Hmmm
Importance: High

Questions 22-28 were intriguing to me in regard to preferences regarding scheduling. I was particularly surprised by the results on 25; however, since the sample of day classes and evening classes were asked the same questions, and most of the sections selected were morning, I thought the bias towards 4:15 may have been caused by these morning students preferring the 4:15 time.

So, below I analyzed the responses for 22 – 28 and separated the respondents by when the class samples is held (day/night). You will see that it DID impact their response on 25 but not much on the others...

See below...interesting....very

I have many other comparisons to make across gender, ages, major....on and on....
