Latest at Rose State College

In keeping with the Rose State POLS traditional calendar of events, Dr. Emily Stacey has coordinated and will moderate the Fall 2022 Great Debate panel on the COVID-19 Pandemic: Three Years Later. The event will occur on Thursday, October 27 at 11am in the FNB Community Bank Ballroom in the Student Union. The illustrious panel includes Rose State's own Dr. Rita Mild, Dean of Health Sciences, as well as NPR/State Impact reporter Catherine Sweeney, and Dr. Dale Bratzler, former COVID Czar for OU health who appeared twice weekly on News9 in the morning throughout the height of the pandemic. The final panelist, Ms. Sandra Harrison, is the General Counsel and Legislative Liaison for the OK Hospital Association. These experts will be here to discuss where we have been, where we are presently, and the future of the COVID pandemic, and will be available to take questions after the panel presentation. The panel will be live-streamed via Zoom(link will be provided closer to event date) and recorded for posting after the event concludes for those who cannot attend in person.

Some of you keep asking about the membership listing. So, we have decided to add it to this Newsletter. Now is the time to update your membership if you are not on the list below. Only members can nominate or vote for Officers on the Board coming up this Fall.

A note from Kathy Holland, retiree from Academic Affairs: I have been volunteering in the Learning Resources Center with Sarah Fox who is an adjunct assigned to the Archives for Rose State College. There have been a number of photos that have been scanned to the computer but are not identified. I have enjoyed going through these scanned photos and recording them in an excel file with ID numbers and the names, hopefully, to go with the file. I have really enjoyed going down memory lane reviewing these photos. Thank goodness they have had directories there for me to thumb through if I can't remember an individual's name. Anyway, Sarah shared her excitement with me of a web site that is brand new -- A Gateway to Oklahoma History that some of you might be interested in checking out from the 15th Street News. Here is the link to the Rose State page on the Gateway to Oklahoma history:

<https://gateway.okhistory.org/explore/collections/RSCN/>

She stated that the LRC has printed copies of all the 15th Street Newspapers if someone wants to see the original. To search for someone (or something) scroll to the middle of the page where it says "search inside this collection." When searching for names, it's better to put them inside quotes "Kathy Holland" so that it searches for first and last name at the same time. I tried just putting my name and it came up with every Kathy that had ever been at the College. So, you need to put specifics in quotes. If you have any questions, Sarah said she would be happy to answer any you might have. sfox@rose.edu
